

Invitation Letter for Spring Festival Tour in China

Dear Respected Partners and Distinguished Purchasing Friends,

Time forges friendship, and joint efforts embrace a promising future. As the Lunar New Year approaches, on behalf of our Group headquartered in Dubai with a manufacturing factory in China specializing in poultry meat export, I would like to extend our sincerest greetings and best New Year wishes to all partners who have trusted and supported our enterprise over the years.

Our company specializes in the whole industrial chain of fresh chicken production and international trade. Relying on the stable production capacity, strict quality control system and sound supply chain advantages of our standardized factory in China, we have long supplied premium chicken products to African markets including Nigeria, Libya, Gambia, Tanzania, Ethiopia, as well as Dubai in the Middle East. Adhering to the philosophy of quality-oriented integrity and win-win cooperation, we fulfill every order with guaranteed quality and quantity, supporting our partners to consolidate local markets and expand business steadily.

As top purchasers with the largest annual procurement volume in each respective market, you are our most valuable partners and companions. Thanks to your generous support and in-depth collaboration, our products have gained wide recognition and sound reputation across Africa and the Middle East, enabling stable, mutually beneficial and long-term growth for both sides.

To express our gratitude for your outstanding cooperation and consistent trust over the past year, we sincerely invite the No.1 top purchasers (by annual procurement volume) from Nigeria, Libya, Gambia, Tanzania, Ethiopia and Dubai to embark on an exclusive Spring Festival tour in China.

We will arrange your entire itinerary in China thoughtfully. During your stay, we cordially invite you to visit our Chinese manufacturing factory in person, exploring modern production workshops, standardized processing procedures, rigorous quality inspection systems and cold-chain storage facilities. You will witness our large-scale production capacity, standardized quality standards and complete supply chain system, and gain first-hand insight into the whole production process of high-quality chicken products, laying a solid foundation for deeper and longer-term strategic cooperation between us.

China is filled with rich festive atmosphere and vibrant scenery during the Lunar New Year. We will take you to immerse yourselves in traditional Chinese Spring Festival folk customs, unique New Year traditions and profound Chinese landscapes, as well as taste authentic local Chinese cuisine. We will communicate cordially, renew our friendship and discuss new business opportunities in a relaxed and pleasant environment. Our company will cover all arrangements including accommodation, catering, local transportation and scheduled activities for all invited guests throughout your stay in China.

NAU INTERNATIONAL FOOD GROUP - FZCO

NIFG2026001

Years of dedicated partnership pave the way for mutual success; gratitude for your companionship ushers in a brand-new chapter. In the past, we built trust through premium quality and delivered shared prosperity via cooperation. Moving forward, we look forward to deepening our partnership and broadening our business scope, continuously supplying cost-effective, high-quality poultry products to markets worldwide, and jointly tapping into broader international business prospects to embrace greater commercial success.

The Spring Festival is drawing near, and we are eagerly looking forward to your arrival! We sincerely welcome all partners to China to celebrate the Lunar New Year, appreciate oriental customs and discuss future prospects. We anticipate meeting you in China and spending a wonderful festive season together.

Wish you a prosperous New Year, thriving business, abundant wealth and all the best!

NAU INTERNATIONAL FOOD GROUP-FZCO

Lin Kai

NIFG